Dear Student and Parents/Guardian,

Students are invited to participate in two events with the Writers Workshop schedule in the table above. First, the students will meet on a Saturday to work with college students from Texas State University in San Marcos to write poems (Elementary students and High School students) and fiction (Junior High School students).

On the last Saturday, February 25, all of the writers (Elementary, JHS, and HS) are invited to the Authors' Celebration to both read and listen to the poems and fictional stories that were written during the workshop. Students may choose to read their poems or story or a revised version. The Texas State University students will also read poems and stories that they have written. Parents are welcome to stay to enjoy the readings.

If you plan to come, please let your teacher or principal know.

Hope you can come join the fun!
